Dear Paul,

Happy birthday! May I say that your level of commitment and professionalism is hard to find. Your role in this process was very significant and I thank you for sticking with me through the difficult circumstances. It was a rough 2016, but things are getting better. Appreciate your vote of confidence. Maybe you can confirm your address to the immigration officer who was God sent. Will definitely have a few more questions later. Have a good evening and God bless you too.

Regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

This has truly made my day (which so happens to be my birthday). I know that you have been through so much the last nine months, and I am so pleased that I've played my small part in making your life easier. I know you will go from strength to strength and make a successful life for yourself in the US.

I am not sure where the green card will be sent, but will be looking out for it.

God bless you.

Regards,

Paul
